

JUST NOT WRITE! ON MONUMENTS

Names Found on Pennsylvania Memorial Turned over to Commissioner Tepper. Heavy Fines or Imprisonment Possible.

the practice of writing letters to various monuments on the island were sent out, indicated by the name of the National Park Commission in turning over to United States Commissioner Tupper thirteen names which were found written on various monuments of the Hawaiian new $140,000 monument memorial. The following is the list, the address being where known.

Clinton Blinch, Russell Frager, John Hoffman, Milton Blitzer, Harry Lloyd Vingling, Hansover, John W. Wambach, Alice Albert, James J. Sauer, Orange, R. J., Lloyd Vingling, New Cumberland;

Mr. Topper has written to those whose names he knows and has received replies in almost every instance, the replies declaring that not they, but one else, must have done the writing. It is said that the instances where names have been secured to show that parties whose names appear were not guilty as charged on the day the offense allegedly to have been committed.

If satisfactory arrangements are not in by those whose names have been secured it is possible that information be held under the Act of 1890

provides, "That if any person or persons shall unlawfully, willfully, or knowingly injure or defame any statute or common law or doctrine, or which hereafter be enacted by the authority of or within the Commonwealth, or shall in like manner abuse, add to, or change any of the scriptures upon any such statute or common law, such person or persons shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, upon being convicted thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year either or both in the discretion of court."
